Limited Assistance Representation Attorney
Statement of Qualification to appear as an LAR Attorney in all
Divisions of the Probate and Family Court Department
(for Attorneys completing the information session independently)

Limited Assistance Representation has been approved for all matters filed and heard in all Divisions of the Probate and Family Court Department. Qualification to appear as a Limited Representation Attorney in the Probate and Family Court Department requires the completion of a Limited Representation information session. The Steering Committee on Self-Represented Litigants has developed a procedure which allows you to complete the information session on your own through digital and printed materials. Once you have completed the information session you must complete this Statement of Qualification and send it to the address below.

Please keep a copy of this statement for your records.

Please type or print all information you complete.
