PUBLIC MEETING

Jamaica Pond Access Enhancements Perkins Street and Parkman Drive

Wednesday, June 26, 2013 – 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.
Arnold Arboretum Visitor Center/Hunnewell Building
125 Arborway, Boston

At this meeting, co-hosted by the Massachusetts Department of Conservation, The Emerald Necklace Conservancy, the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University, and State Representative Jeffrey Sanchez, DCR will present results of a draft traffic study charged with developing options to improve safety and access for pedestrians and cyclists who cross Perkins Street and Parkman Drive to Jamaica Pond. After the presentation, DCR will solicit public input on three potential solutions suggested by the draft study and respond to questions. The presentation will be viewable soon after the public meeting on DCR's website at <http://www.mass.gov/dcr/news/publicmeetings/parkwaysmaterials.htm>.

If you have questions about the listening session, please call 617-626-4974 or email DCR.Updates@state.ma.us.

If you have comments, concerns, or questions regarding this draft study and its recommendations, please email DCR.Updates@state.ma.us, noting "Jamaica Pond Access" in the subject line or write to the DCR Office of Public Outreach, 251 Causeway St., 6th Floor, Boston, MA 02114. If you would like to be added to an email list to receive DCR general announcements, have questions, or wish to report a concern, email mass.parks@state.ma.us or call 617-626-4973.

Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request by emailing Agatha Summons-McGuire at agatha.summons@state.ma.us or by calling her at 617-626-1282. Please provide Ms. McGuire with a description of the accommodation you will need, including as much detail as you can, as well as information on how she can contact you if more information is needed. Please allow at least two weeks (14 days) advance notice to Ms. McGuire of a need for reasonable accommodations; last-minute requests will be accepted, but may be impossible to fill. To request materials in accessible formats (Braille, large print, electronic files, audio format), please also contact Ms. McGuire.
