2013 Fire & Life Safety Educator of the Year Award

About the Award

Nominations are being accepted for the 2013 Massachusetts Fire and Life Safety Educator of the Year Award. This award is designed to recognize individuals or teams for their involvement and commitment to make our world safer from fire or other preventable injuries. Although fire and life safety education may be their job, we are looking for people who go above and beyond to make a difference. We seek to honor people who demonstrate qualities such as leadership, teamwork, creativity, vision, and perseverance. The winner's name will be inscribed on a perpetual plaque which hangs at the Department of Fire Services. The winner will be invited to participate in fire prevention activities with the State Fire Marshal, and to represent fire and life safety educators at appropriate events throughout the year. The award and the runner-up citations will be presented on September 25 or 26, 2013 at the 19th Annual Fire and Life Safety Education Conference to be held at the Westford Regency Inn & Conference Center.

Please explain

Please explain why the nominee deserves special recognition by writing a short answer to the following questions. (Feel free to use an extra sheet of paper.)
