

III. How Would You Prefer the Legal Division to Respond To Your Request?

We can respond by telephone or in writing (usually by email).

Would you prefer advice by TELEPHONE? Yes No

If yes, please list the best telephone number for us to reach you.

MAY WE MAY LEAVE YOU A VOICEMAIL MESSAGE STATING THAT WE ARE CALLING FROM THE STATE ETHICS COMMISSION? Yes No

Please state the best time for us to reach you: Morning Afternoon Any

Would you prefer WRITTEN advice? Yes No

When you are ready to submit your request for advice, click the "Submit" button. You will need to have an email program available from your computer to send the online form to the Commission. When you click the submit button, a pop-up window will appear asking you to select the type of email program you will use to transmit the form, either a default program on your computer, such as Microsoft Outlook, or a web email program, such as Gmail. Once you make your selection, click "ok", and an email message will display with the Commission's email address pre-populated, and your form will be attached to that email. Click "Send" to email your request for advice to the Legal Division.